

MS. CAROL MARCIA VASSALL

Jambar mourns the passing of Ms. Carol Marcia Vassall, Attorney-at-Law and Notary Public. Carol made her transition on 15th May, 2014 after a period of illness. Carol Vassall provided long and distinguished service to the legal fraternity on the Bar Council of the Jamaican Bar Association up to March, 2014, as due to her failing health, she elected not to offer herself for continued service to Jambar. Many of us will also recall her incisive analysis and practical solutions oriented approach to issues that had to be dealt with by Jambar. Jamaicans of all walks appreciated her profound contributions as a radio host and member of the radio programme “The Breakfast Club” and later as a co-host in the early days of the Nationwide radio broadcasts.

Many will also remember her vigorous advocacy for the rights of small coffee farmers and her voice raised in support and service to the Jamaica Coffee Growers Association.

Personally, I fondly recall and appreciate her guidance and phone calls of encouragement.

I have sent a condolence message to Carol’s nieces, Ms. Noelle-Nicole Walker and Ms. Tonia Sibblies, Attorneys-at-Law, and conveyed the deepest sympathies of the Jamaican Bar Association to Carol’s family. Carol is survived by her Mother Mercella, sisters Lorna, Joy and Andrea, brother Patrick, nieces Camille, Noelle-Nicole, Tonia, Kehinde, Akwele, Adeola and grandnephew Liam, Funeral arrangements will be announced at a later date.

The Jamaican Bar Association salutes the work and worth of our colleague and friend Carol Marcia Vassall. May she Rest in Peace.
