Arbitration, ADR and Private International Law

Arbitration of International Business Disputes

Studies in Law and Practice

Second Edition

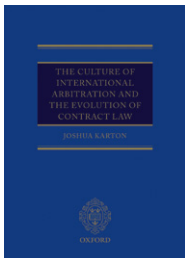

William W. Park

“Once in every few years, there comes along in most disciplines a book which is quite special. In our discipline of dispute resolution, only one or two fine minds have attempted to collect, digest, analyse and expound the whole body of knowledge about a subject as large as international commercial arbitration. Professor Park has done that and more: he has given every topic his own new twist.”

Arbitration International, review of previous edition

Arbitration of International Business Disputes, second edition is a fully revised and updated anthology of essays by Rusty Park, a leading scholar in international arbitration and a sought-after arbitrator for both commercial and investment treaty cases. This collection focuses on controversial questions in arbitration of trade, financial, and investment disputes.

Karon Monaghan QC, Matrix Chambers

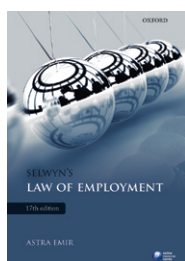

Karon Monaghan QC provides a detailed analysis of the current equality law framework and the concepts underlying protection against discrimination

- Considers the full scope of the protection against discrimination in UK and European law, and analyses relevant emerging decisions from the European Court of Human Rights
- Explains the meaning of 'equality' and discrimination', the grounds protected, and the application of equality to specific practice areas including employment, goods and services, housing, education, transport, and public law

"This book is a thorough and detailed exposition of the subject that will repay many return visits. The fluid nature of equality law means that it is always hard to pin down and difficult to know when to stop. For equality law practitioners and academics alike it will provide a significant source of information and ideas that will be a welcome addition to equality library."

Gay Moon, Head of the Equality Project, JUSTICE
